Golden Gate Flyers held their annual "Holiday Party" on December 11, 2013. This has always been one of GGF's most well-attended events -- and this year was no exception...

With 36 members and guests in attendance, it was a great opportunity to greet some members and guests who don't otherwise make it to the regular monthly dinner meetings. Four of the guests in attendance decided to become Golden Gate Flyers members.

The Sausage Factory Restaurant on Castro Street, in San Francisco, hosted our group very graciously in their private dining room, presenting us with an array of satisfying hors d'oeuvres and wines. Unlike our regular monthly meetings, with a more defined seating arrangement, the annual holiday party is always a "mixer", with members and guests free to mingle or sit, as they choose. This event, and the annual fall Oakland hangar party, are GGF's two big events which are compliments of the club each year.
